THE ARTISTS' CLUB OF NEWARK
NEW JERSEY.

THE ARTISTS' CLUB OF NEWARK NEW JERSEY.

What is the Artists' Club? An organization of about 600 persons formed to foster interest in art in our community.

What is this interest in art? It is a feeling of interest in and admiration for objects of beauty and for ideas that make life more complete and a community better worth living in.

How may the Artists' Club affect art sentiment in the community? By drawing together and focalizing art interests; by so centralizing the aesthetic feeling of the community that it may achieve positive results.

What benefits may be derived from membership in the Artists' Club? Association with people who are trying to make the life of the community broader and richer, and the pleasure of helping to promote worthy interests and institutions.

Who are the members of the Artists' Club? They are artists, students of art, and advocates of art. These last are the conductors of the Club's general work. They are sponsors who lend their names and influence to the advancement of art interest and to the general promotion of the city's welfare.

What are the means the Artists' Club has in mind for the improvement of the city? (a). Establish and maintain classes in art in all its forms. (b). Present art as a subject of interest and value through lectures. (c). Hold fine and applied art exhibitions, including the work of both professionals and amateurs. (d). Establish and maintain a permanent art collection in our city free to all.

Is the Artists' Club a private concern? The Artists' Club is not a select or private organization. It is the nucleus of a still larger and more influential public body which will some day be a great power for good in the city's life.

Who are the officers of the Artists' Club? The following persons, who also form the Board of Control or executive body: Samuel Clark, President; J. Victor Christl, Vice-President; David Maclure, Recording Secretary; William Cairns, Corresponding Secretary; Albert Dick, Treasurer; H. August Schwabe, Instructor; Clinton Balmer, Instructor; John R. Grabach; John C. Dana; Albert R. Lache.

What are the fees of the club? For association members $1.00 per year; for student members $10.00 per year; for sustaining members $10.00 per year.
